

TRAVEL + LEISURE READERS RATE RUSTY PARROT TOPS IN SERVICE

JACKSON HOLE LODGE RECEIVES TOP 10 AWARD

Jackson, Wyoming--June 6, 2006--Travel + Leisure magazine, with over 1 million readers, named the World's Best Service Awards in its June 2006 issue, ranking the Rusty Parrot Lodge & Spa number two in the Continental U.S. and Canada, announced Rusty Parrot General Manager Jim Promo. The Jackson Hole luxury lodge rated 96.59 points for service, while number one-listed Blackberry Farm in Walland, Tennessee, received 99.2 points. The Rusty Parrot was the only Wyoming property to appear in the list's top ten.

In August 2005, Travel + Leisure readers named the Rusty Parrot number one hotel in the Continental U.S. and Canada, and in March 2006 the magazine named the Rusty Parrot a top value in the Continental U.S. and Canada in its Setting the Standard, $250 to $400 per night category.

Customer service at the Rusty Parrot has been paramount—and proactive—since the lodge's inception, with staff members consistently encouraged to anticipate needs and exceed expectations.

"I'm delighted with the recognition," says Promo. "Our staff works very hard to give our guests a memorable experience at the Rusty Parrot Lodge."

A member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World, the Rusty Parrot Lodge & Spa has been featured in the past year on "The Today Show" and CNN, and in numerous publications including USA Today, Condé Nast Traveler, Sunset, The New York Times, Better Homes and Gardens, and Harper's Bazaar, Australia. The Rusty Parrot and its in-house restaurant Wild Sage continue to be Jackson's only lodge and restaurant to receive AAA's prestigious Four Diamond award.

The Rusty Parrot Lodge & Spa was built in 1990 by owner Ron Harrison, who envisioned a different type of lodge near the shopping, art galleries, and restaurants of Jackson's Town Square.
