JACKSON LUXURY LODGE RECOGNIZED ON WORLD'S BEST LIST

Jackson, Wyoming – July 14, 2008 – The Rusty Parrot Lodge & Spa has been named one of the 2008 World's Best Hotels by Travel + Leisure readers in the current (August) issue of the magazine.

The Rusty Parrot was voted number 27 in the Top 100 Hotels: Continental U.S. and Canada category, and number 94 in the Top 100 Hotels in the World. The only other Wyoming property to make the list was the Four Seasons Resort in Jackson Hole, rated number 46 in the World and number 11 in the Continental U.S. and Canada.

"Travel + Leisure's World's Best Award means a lot to us because it is a direct result of our guests' experiences," said Rusty Parrot General Manager Jim Promo. "We strive to provide our guests with a memorable time in Jackson during every visit."

The Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards are announced each year to honor the favorite hotels, spas, airlines, cruise lines, outfitters, cities and islands around the globe. Travel + Leisure subscribers are invited to participate by completing an online survey. To maintain the integrity of the survey, an outside company maintains, monitors and keeps the survey website secure. Since its inception, the lodge has been recognized with many prestigious awards with regular placements on the Conde Nast Traveler Gold List and Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards—including being rated number one hotel in the Continental U.S. and Canada by readers in 2005. The Rusty Parrot also has been featured in media from NBC's "The Today Show" to USA Today and The New York Times. Both the Rusty Parrot and its Wild Sage restaurant continue to receive the prestigious AAA Four Diamond Award.
